SPONSORSHIP DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Scratch My Belly rescue has proudly saved 50 dogs during the year of 2015 from all different ages and breeds. Our goal is to save 100 animals in year 2016. We are a young rescue and have saved more animals than many other rescues have been able to save in their first year of operation.

We are very passionate about saving the lives of shelter animals and our main objective is to provide a second chance at life to animals that have been abandoned, surrendered to shelters or just dumped on the streets to fend for their lives. We believe in community involvement, giving back and working tirelessly to become the best we can possibly be. We are a 501(c)3 non-profit all breed rescue, run entirely by volunteers.

We recognize that some animals need more care than expected and we are proud to provide them with such care. While addressing basic care needs like vaccines, spay/neuter, micro-chipping, deworming, flea/tick prevention, we will also care for other problems like hernias, masses, dental extractions, skin issues and even cancer.

Scratch My Belly provides vet care, housing, food and other needs to our rescued animals with the help of private donors. Preparing for the year of 2016, we realize that in order to meet the ever growing demand to help homeless animals we need your assistance. 100% of your contributions go directly to support the rescue of homeless animals. Should you have an interest in making a financial contribution, donating your time and expertise to our organization, or would like to become a sponsor, we have a number of opportunities available.

Sponsorship opportunities range greatly and can be flexible to meet your needs. Dollar amount for these opportunities range from $250.00 on up. Sponsorship examples include: t-shirts with your company logo, website logo on our site, adoption event signage, vet care funding (with website and/or facebook recognition), newsletter placement, just to name a few.

If you are interested in becoming involved in something special, or would like more information, please contact Frederica Ginsburg at 858-344-2423 or info@scratchmybelly.org
